"...this honest perspective only makes the choked-up testimonials to dads all the more poignant."

BOYS TO MEN TO BOYS...

8-9PM

THE STORY OF FATHERS & SONS (ABC, TV-PG) AT&T owes this moving pre-Father's Day documentary a thank-you note, because every male viewer will lunge to call Dad when it ends. A parade of men (including celebs such as Shaquille O'Neal and Home Improvement's Zachery Ty Bryan, above with father Dwight) ruminate on the baton passing of fatherhood, from the birth of a son to the death of a dad. It's far from treacly propaganda: Included are a father who struggles to accept his severely handicapped son and many raw complaints of estrangement. But this honest perspective only makes the choked-up testimonials to dads all the more poignant. Go on, give the Old Man a ring. A —Josh Wolk
